

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Blue House International Pte Ltd (hereinafter referred to as “Blue House”) and its subsidiaries, is a Reggio Emilia Inspired School in Singapore with a fully emergent curriculum.

The Reggio Emilia approach to teaching inspires educators across the world, with schools like Blue House focusing on key elements.

- Children must be able to learn through hands-on experiences using all of their senses
- Children learn best through a project-based approach
- Children are facilitated and guided by passionate and experienced staff.
- Children must be encouraged and allowed to foster relationships with other children.
- Children must feel safe and be given ample opportunities to express themselves

At Blue House, we fully understand and respect that the teaching approach is undeniably entwined in the culture of the town of Reggio Emilia. We endeavour to be inspired by their approach to teaching and strive to create our own cultural context at Blue House, Singapore.

In order for your child to benefit from the curriculum, we set out our Terms and Conditions herein.

1 Definition

1.1 “Additional Activities” shall refer to extra-curricular activities including but not limited to Emergency Care, Enrichment Programmes or any other third party vendor-provided programmes for which additional fees are required to be paid in addition to the Monthly School Fees (or the Initial Monthly School Fees).

1.2 “Application Form” shall refer to the online application form(s) (sent via Little Lives school management system) submitted to Blue House upon submission of an application for entry.

1.3 “Admission Policy” shall refer to the policy set out in Clause 4 below.

1.4 “Current School month” shall refer to the month in which the Child is attending his or her programme at Blue House.

1.5 “Deposit” shall refer to the deposit payable upon admission and enrolment of the Child into Blue House as set out in the Fee Schedule at Annex A herein.

1.6 “Fee Schedule” shall refer to the schedule setting out all applicable fees and payments, at Annex A herein.

1.7 “Centre Principal” shall refer to a person appointed by Blue House who has the power to make decisions in relation to operational matters and matters regarding the children’s welfare (including the Child’s).

1.8 “Initial Month’s Fees” shall refer to the applicable monthly school fees payable by the Parent prior to the Child’s commencement of his or her first month of a programme with Blue House as set out in the Fee Schedule at Annex A herein.

1.9 “Registration Fee” shall refer to the applicable registration fee payable upon admission and enrolment of the Child into Blue House as set out in the Fee Schedule at Annex A herein.

1.10 “Registration Forms” shall refer to the requisite forms from the Early Childhood Development Agency (ECDA) submitted to Blue House upon the offer of an available place by Blue House and the enrolment of the Child into Blue House.

1.11 “School Term” shall refer to the period during which the programmes offered by Blue House are run (excluding holiday periods) as set out in the Centre Calendar at Annex B herein.

1.12 “Terms and Conditions” shall refer to these Terms and Conditions of enrolment and include the Schedules and amendments hereto.

1.13 "School Fees" shall refer to the applicable fees payable by the Parent prior to the Child's commencement of each subsequent month of a programme with Blue House (after the Child's first month of a programme at Blue House) as set out in the Fee Schedule at Annex A herein.

1.14 "Centre Calendar" shall refer to the schedule setting out the applicable School Terms, as set out in Annex B herein.

1.15 "The Child" shall refer to the applicant / the child as named in the Application Form and Registration Forms.

1.16 "The Parent" shall refer to the parent, legal guardian and/or the person in whom parental responsibilities for the Child are vested.

1.17 "Withdrawal Date" shall refer to the date of the child's last date of attendance as reflected in the duly completed ECDA Withdrawal Form, as officially acknowledged by the Blue House administrator.

1.18 "Withdrawal Deadline" shall refer to the two (2) months before the end of the Child's current month of attendance

1.19 "Withdrawal Form" shall refer to the form to be completed and submitted by the Parent to Blue House in order for the Child to withdraw from Blue House, at Annex C herein.

2 Acknowledgement and Agreement to the Terms and Conditions

2.1 Enrolment into Blue House is subject to the Terms and Conditions set out herein. By submitting the Application Form and the Registration Forms, the Parent acknowledges their acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.

2.2 Upon enrolment of the Child into Blue House, the Parent agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions and all policies, rules and regulations as may be published and amended by Blue House from time to time.

3 Application and Registration / Admission

3.1 To apply for enrolment into Blue House, the Parent must complete and submit the Little Lives Registration Form and the ECDA Registration Form to Blue House. The Child is only deemed to have applied after Blue House acknowledges our receipt of both forms in writing.

3.2 An application for enrolment does not guarantee the Child a place at Blue House for the year and month for which the application is made. Blue House shall offer available places subject to its Admission Policy (set out at clause 4 below) and Blue House may exercise its discretion with regard to enrolment as it reasonably deems just and fit, where and if necessary.

3.3 Upon the offer of an available place to the Child, the Parent must complete and submit the Registration Forms and make payment of the Registration Fee, Initial Month's Fees and Deposit within 3 working days from the date on which the Child is offered a place in Blue House.

3.4 Fee payments and Delayed/ Cancelled Enrolments

3.4.1 Admission and enrolment of the Child into Blue House is subject to the payment of the Registration Fee, Initial Month Fees and Deposit within 3 working days from the date on which the Child is offered a place in Blue House (as set out in Clause 3.3 above), failing which Blue House shall be entitled to withdraw the offer and offer that place to the next child in accordance with the Admission Policy if it does not receive the said payment.

3.4.2 Should you decline starting on the committed enrolment date indicated at the point of registration, you agree to inform the school with a minimum of 2 months' notice in order for a full refund of your deposit and initial month's fees. Otherwise, the following forfeitures apply:

Less than 2 months' notice of delayed / cancelled enrolment : Half of deposit forfeited

Less than 1 month's notice of delayed / cancelled enrolment : Full deposit and initial month fees forfeited

No notice of delayed / cancelled enrolment: Full deposit and initial month's fees forfeited

3.4.3 Re-enrolment will be subject to availability.

3.5 For the avoidance of doubt, payment of the requisite fees does not confirm the admission and enrolment of the Child. The Child's admission and enrolment into Blue House is only confirmed upon written confirmation by Blue House, which will be sent to the Parent via the mode indicated on the Registration Forms.

3.6 For cases of re-admission after a full withdrawal (refer to Clause 13), where the Child withdraws from Blue House for more than one month and the Parent wishes to subsequently enrol the Child again, the Parent is required to

- i. Submit the official withdrawal form as in Annex C
- ii. Submit a fresh application by submitting the Little Lives Application Form and the ECDA Registration Form and
- iii. Make payment of the Registration Fee, Initial Month's Fees and Deposit upon the offer of a place for the Child (in accordance with Clause 3.3).

3.7 For cases of prolonged absence (refer to Clause 13), where the Child is absent from Blue House for a maximum of one month, the Parent is required to

- (i) agree to Blue House retaining the Deposit during the period of prolonged absence
- (ii) make full payment of the monthly fees to retain the child's enrolment during the period of prolonged absence
- (iii) inform Blue House with two month's notice as per clause 3.6 for full withdrawal, paying the month's school fees during the notice period, if the Parent wishes to discontinue the Child's enrolment

The re-admission of the Child is subject to availability and the prevailing Admission Policy.

4 Admission Policy

4.1 Admission into Blue House is strictly on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to availability.

4.2 Upon the submission and written acknowledgement of the receipt of the Application Form to Blue House, the Child will be placed on a waiting list, where priority placement may be offered in the following order:-

- (i) Siblings of a child currently attending Blue House
- (ii) Children transferring directly from a different Blue House Campus
- (iii) Children who had previously attended and completed Blue House programmes ("Blue House Alumni")
- (iv) Siblings of Blue House Alumni

4.3 Registration Fee Waivers

4.3.1 Registration Fee waivers apply to promotional periods stipulated by Blue House campaigns and events at Blue House's discretion.

4.3.2 Current students transferring between campuses will also enjoy a Registration Fee waiver for immediate transfers with no disruption to the child's attendance.

5 Information Provided to Blue House

5.1 The Parent undertakes to provide accurate information in the Application Form and the Registration Forms. Any inaccurate information may affect the Child's admission into Blue House, and Blue House has the discretion to reject the Child's Application and/or Registration on such grounds.

5.2 All information provided in the Registration Forms shall be deemed to be accurate unless any change is made known to Blue House in writing and duly acknowledged by Blue House.

6 Fees and Payments

6.1 The applicable fees payable by the Parent to Blue House are stipulated in your monthly fee invoices. Payment must be made by the due dates stated therein, past which a late payment fee will apply..

6.2 For avoidance of doubt, the Registration Fee and School Fees (including Initial Month Fees) are non-refundable, and the Deposit is non-transferrable.

6.3 Payment of all School Fees (after the Child's first month at Blue House) must be made within 14 days from the Withdrawal Deadline regardless of the date of commencement of the subsequent school month for which the school fees are being paid and irrespective of whether an invoice has been received by the Parent (i.e. it is the Parent's responsibility to make payment of School Fees to Blue House once they become due, as reflected on the monthly invoices sent on the 5th of the preceding month).

6.4 In the event of non-payment of the School Fees by the stipulated deadline set out in the monthly invoice, the Child shall be deemed to have withdrawn from Blue House (i.e. the Child's enrolment in Blue House shall be deemed to be terminated), and the Deposit and any other fees or monies paid shall be forfeited.

6.5 For late payment, an interest rate of 3% per month is chargeable on the overdue amount starting from the due date until payment (Note: The Child's place will be automatically forfeited in the event of non-payment of any Fee by the stipulated deadline, and the Child will be taken to have withdrawn from Blue House or to have terminated his or her enrolment in the event of nonpayment of School Fees by the stipulated deadline set out in the monthly invoice. Blue House may impose late payment interest or charges where any of the above-mentioned payments are late but the vacancy or the Child's enrolment is not terminated out of goodwill and at the discretion of Blue House.

6.6 Monthly fees are to be paid in full in the event of absences due to vacation, illness or any other reason. In extenuating circumstances, a prolonged absence (previously termed temporary withdrawal) or full withdrawal may be applied where extended absence is expected, with prevailing enrolment policies applied. Please refer to clause 13 for the relevant withdrawal policies and processes.

6.7 In exceptional cases, (deemed exceptional by Blue House at its discretion) the Child may be enrolled into Blue House in the middle of the month at the Parent's request and where Blue House deems fit. Registration and admission terms set out in Clause 3 shall apply accordingly.

6.7.1 Where a child commences his or her programme in the midst of the first half of the Current School month (i.e. before the 15th of the month), the Initial Month Fees payable by the Parent shall be the full Initial Month Fees.

6.7.2 Where a child commences his or her programme in the second half of the Current School Month (i.e. after the 15th of the month), the Initial Month Fees payable by the Parent shall be half of the Initial Month Fee for the Current School Month for which the Child is enrolled in.

6.8 Blue House shall notify the Parent of any changes or amendments to the school Fees for the upcoming school year in writing at least 90 days before the commencement of the school year.

6.9 For avoidance of doubt, the School Fees and Initial Month's Fees will not be pro-rated under any circumstances unless approved by the Centre Principal.

7 Age Requirement

7.1 The age requirement as at 1 January of the academic year of application for entry to the respective programmes run by Blue House are as follows:

- (i) Playgroup Programme 18 months +
- (ii) Nursery 1 Programme turning 3 years old
- (iii) Nursery 2 Programme turning 4 years old
- (iv) Kindergarten 1 Programme turning 5 years old
- (v) Kindergarten 2 Programme turning 6 years old

7.2 The above ages and age bands of the programmes are guidelines. Blue House may at its sole discretion vary the age requirement on a case by case basis. Blue House may also at its sole discretion vary the age band of the programmes and place a child into the most appropriate programme as it deems fit.

8 The Programmes

8.1 Blue House offers the Child a choice of the following programmes based on the age requirements (as set out in Clause 7 above):-

- (i) 5 half days per week, between 7:30am to 1pm or 1pm to 6:30pm
- (ii) 5 full days per week, between 7:30am to 6:30pm

8.2 For avoidance of doubt, the programmes do not include public holidays (i.e. the School Terms excludes public holidays and weekends).

8.3 Blue House reserves the right to modify or change the programmes as it deems fit.

8.4 The programmes listed above do not include any enrichment programmes conducted by third-party vendors or other Blue House staff, to which Clause 10 applies.

8.5 Late pick-up programme conversion

8.5.1 Where children are picked up late on more than two (2) occasions from the half-day programme, the child's programme will be converted to the full-day programme for the month and the top-up billing will be reflected in the next school fee invoice.

8.5.2 Where children are picked up later than 6:45pm on more than two (2) occasions from the full-day programme, the school reserves the right to charge $100 per additional 15-minute block to cover the overtime costs incurred.

Late pick-up occasions are tabulated and refreshed for each academic year.

9 School Term and Holidays

9.1 The duration and periods of the upcoming school term and gazetted closure days are set out in the Centre Calendar at Annex B herein.

9.2 It is the preferred arrangement of Blue House to complete the admission and enrolment of the Child prior to the commencement of the applicable month of attendance so the Child may commence his or her programme upon commencement of the school month.

10 Additional Activities

10.1 In the course of the School Year, Blue House may from time to time organise Additional Activities for the Child. The costs of these Additional Activities are additional to and not included in the School Fees. In order for the Child to participate in such Additional Activities, Blue House will require the Parent to (i) acknowledge his or her consent in a consent form and submit the same to Blue House; and (ii) make payment of the requisite fees.

10.2 Blue House reserves the right to exclude the Child from such Additional Activities where the Parent does not submit the requisite consent form and/or fails to pay in full any requisite fees.

10.3 Blue House may at its sole discretion, exclude the Child from such Additional Activities if it deems the Child unfit to participate.

10.4 Payment of fees for such Additional Activities are non-refundable and non-transferrable.

11 Well-being of the Child

11.1 The Parent must make full and truthful declarations of any illness and/or medical condition suffered by the Child, including a declaration of any known special needs and/or allergies suffered by the Child.

11.2 The Parent should report any contagious or potentially contagious condition being suffered by the Child as soon as the Parent is aware of such condition, including, but not limited to chickenpox, measles, Hand Foot Mouth Disease, COVID, head lice and so on.

11.3 The Parent undertakes that any medication given to Blue House for the Child is safe, adequate and has not passed its expiration date and is accurately and clearly labelled with the (i) name of the child; (ii) storage instructions and (iii) treatment/dosage instructions. Blue House will not be responsible for checking that the medication is adequate and may in its sole discretion reject medication that is not accurately and clearly labeled, and if Blue House at its absolute discretion deems fit for the well-being of the child, may request the Parent to pick up the child or send the child to a doctor. Medication will only be administered with a duly completed Authorisation Form for administering medication.

11.4 Blue House may notify the Parent to bring the Child to see a doctor where a child's health becomes a cause for concern and may request that the Child be kept in isolation. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Blue House shall be entitled in its absolute discretion to refuse to allow the Child to join any class or activity where the child is unwell or where Blue House deems that it is in the interest of the well-being of the Child or other children to do so.

11.5 In the event any medical need or emergency arises in respect of the Child, and the Parent cannot be contacted to give consent, Blue House may authorize the medical examination of the child, call for further medical or specialist advice or take the Child to a hospital, and all expenses thereby incurred shall be borne by the Parent. In such cases, the Parent authorises Blue House to exercise its discretion to act in the best interest of the Child.

11.6 If eligible, medical expenses incurred due to accidents in school can be submitted to our insurance provider NTUC Income, under the Junior Protection Plan for claim. Original receipts must be submitted within 15 days of the consultation and follow up treatments related to the injury sustained in the accident, will be claimable up to 6 months post-injury.

11.7 The Child may participate in physical education classes, trips and activities and garden area activities (which involve the handling and care of the pets and other animals including rabbits or as the case may be). The Parent agrees that the Child in so participating does so at the Child's own risk. Blue House shall take all necessary safety precautions and act in a responsible manner to ensure the safety of the Child in their charge while the Child is participating in such activities. The Parent further agrees not to hold Blue House responsible, or liable for any injury, loss of property, or other damage that may be caused to, or suffered or sustained by the Child that may be in any way related to the acts or omissions of Blue House, its officers, employees, any child or third party during these activities.

11.8 The Parent accepts and understands that a separate consent form shall be issued specifically for each event/outing conducted outside the school premises.

11.9 The Parent shall provide Blue House with full details of the persons authorised to pick the Child up, failing which Blue House reserves the right to keep the Child within its premises and/or under its supervision until one of the authorised caregivers arrives to pick the Child up.

11.10 The Parent accepts that from time to time, Blue House shall record work and activities of the Child to be used as observation journals, and for school projects and/or media releases.

12 The Centre Principal

12.1 The Centre Principal has the discretion and power to decide on matters relating to the curriculum and Additional Activities including but not limited to class placement, the appointment of teachers, teaching arrangements, location of class and/or activities and contents of teaching materials.

12.2 The Centre Principal shall also have the power to decide on any matters relating to the wellbeing of the Child, including but not limited to termination of the enrolment of the Child in Blue House and matters relating to the Child's personal property.

13 Withdrawal

13.1 In the event the Parent wishes to withdraw the Child from Blue House (i.e. terminate the Child's attendance of his or her programme at Blue House), the Parent shall give Blue House two (2) months prior notice in writing by submitting a duly completed Withdrawal Form (as set out in Annex C). Blue House will acknowledge receipt of the withdrawal form via email within a week of receiving it.

13.1.1 Prolonged Absence (previously termed temporary withdrawal)

Prolonged Absences will only be in effect for the maximum duration of one (1) month and the Monthly Fees will still be payable (see clause 6) in order for the child's enrolment to remain active and retained for re-admission. The Deposit placed with the centre at the time of enrolment will be retained by the school and no registration fee will be effected upon the child's return. The withdrawal policy outlined in clause 13 applies.

13.1.2 Full Withdrawal with notice

A Full Withdrawal can be effected in accordance with the policy outlined in 13.1, with mid-month withdrawal requests being accepted under extenuating circumstances, as deemed extenuating by Blue House and upon approval by the Centre Principal. In the scenario of a Full Withdrawal, the Deposit placed with the centre at the time of enrolment will be refunded in accordance with the refund policy set out in clause 13.4. The child's enrolment will be terminated and the place made available to families on the waitlist. In the event of re-admission, the relevant enrolment policies apply as set out in clause 3.7.

13.1.3 Immediate Full Withdrawal without notice

In the event, two (2) month's notice is not feasible to provide due to extenuating circumstances, as deemed extenuating by the Centre Principal, a case-by-case approval may be granted for the deposit placed at the time of enrolment to be refunded in accordance to prevailing policies. The Centre reserves the right to request supporting documents in the event of an appeal to have the deposit refunded. Blue House reserves the right to reject requests for deposit refunds in the event of immediate Full Withdrawals where notice was not served.

13.2 School Fees that have been paid are not refundable, notwithstanding the Child's Withdrawal Date.

13.3 In the event of a withdrawal in accordance with Clause 13.1, the Deposit will be refunded to the Parent (i.e. where the Withdrawal Date is at least two (2) months before the end of the Child's Current School Month). As such, Blue House strongly encourages the Parent to provide early notice of withdrawal and ensure that the Withdrawal Form is submitted to Blue House in advance prior to the Withdrawal Deadline.

13.4 The Deposit will be refunded within 30 days after the Child's last day of attendance at Blue House (as notified by the Parent to Blue House in writing) in the event the Child or the Parent is entitled to a refund of the Deposit in accordance with Clause 13.1 above.

14 Termination

14.1 Blue House reserves the right to (at its sole discretion) terminate the Child's enrolment in the event the Child and/or the Parent is deemed to be unsuitable to remain in the Blue House community, in which event Blue House will provide the Parent at least 7 days notice in writing.

14.2 Blue House may terminate the Child's enrolment without notice in the event Blue House deems the Child and/or the Parent unsuitable for and/or an endangerment to the Blue House community.

14.3 Where the Child's enrolment is terminated, the Child will cease to attend all programmes at Blue House, and Blue House will refund to the Parent: (i) the Deposit; (ii) the pro-rated School Fees for the period of the month for which the Child will no longer be attending; and (iii) any other fees paid which have not been utilised (e.g. fees for additional activities).

15 Intellectual Property

15.1 Intellectual Property rights of all materials, resources and documents produced by Blue House for the Parent and/or the Child (e.g. progress reports, teaching materials or updates) shall belong to Blue House.

15.2 The Parent and/or the Child shall not duplicate and/or distribute such materials or resources without the written consent of Blue House.

16 Force Majeure

16.1 If by reason of Force Majeure (hereafter defined) Blue House is rendered unable wholly or in part to perform its obligations, then upon notice in writing of such Force Majeure to the parents as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of the clause relied on, Blue House shall be released from such obligations to the extent to which they are affected by the circumstances of Force Majeure and for the period during which those circumstances exist. For the avoidance of doubt, Blue House shall not refund any Term Fees in the event of Force Majeure.

16.2 Force Majeure will be defined to include any of the following events: (a) war, invasion, rebellion, revolution, insurrection or civil war; (b) act of Government; (c) fire, lighting, storms, floods or any other occurrence caused by the operation of the forces of nature; (d) strikes, lookouts, boycotts or labour disputes; (e) terrorism, sabotage or arson; (f) epidemic or infectious disease; (g) haze with PSI value above 100 or which value deemed unhealthy by the relevant local authorities; (h) notification from governmental authorities to suspend the programmes or to close Blue House; or (i) any other event similar to any of the foregoing or any other event beyond the control of Blue House.

17 Privacy Policy

17.1 The Privacy Policy of Blue House is set out here. In accepting the Terms & Conditions herein, the Parent agrees to abide by the Privacy Policy and any updates made time to time thereafter.

17.2 Photographs or videos of the Child may appear in Blue House materials, advertisements, website or press releases. The Parent may notify Blue House by indicating publicity consent in our Additional Information form at the point of enrolment, or via email if the status changes, during any point of their child's enrollment if they would not like the Child to appear in any of these.

18 Miscellaneous

18.1 The Parent shall keep Blue House notified of any changes to his/her contact details so that the parent can be notified in the event of any emergency.

18.2 The Parent undertakes to keep Blue House updated on (i) the residential status of himself or herself and the Child and (ii) any change in the information provided to Blue House in the Application Form or Registration Forms. Upon receipt of such updates on information, Blue House will update its records accordingly and will inform the Parent of the same.

18.3 Blue House reserves the right to modify any of the terms and conditions upon 7 days written notice (by email or otherwise) to the Parent.

18.4 In these Terms and Conditions, where applicable, words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice-versa and references to any statute or provision thereof shall be deemed also to refer to any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof or any statutory instrument, order or regulation made thereunder or under such re-enactment.

18.5 Each provision of the Terms and Conditions is severable and distinct from the other, and if at any time one or more of such provisions is deemed to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

18.6 The Terms and Conditions supersede any other prior agreements, either oral or in writing, between the Parent and Blue House. The Parent acknowledges that no representation, inducement, promises or agreements, orally or otherwise, have been made by any employees of Blue House, which are not embodied herein.

18.7 Nothing herein shall in any way prejudice, affect or impair Blue House's right to claim and demand and to take any action against the Parent for any School Fees or such monies due and owing to the School.

18.8 The Term and Conditions shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Singapore.

18.9 In the event of any dispute arising out of and/or in connection with the Term and Conditions, the parties shall submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Singapore.
